OUR UNPARALLELED FREE TRIAL OFFER, ON 30 DAYS' CREDIT.

Based upon our knowledge that Larkin quality is always the best and that Larkin prices are always the lowest, we make the following offer to all people to whom their home merchants would give like credit.

We will send you an assortment of Larkin Products amounting to $10, and $5 worth of Larkin Factory-Price Merchandise of your selecting—total cost to you $10. You need not send any money in advance. You may keep the goods for thirty days. Try any or all of them. Long before the thirty days expire you will find that you never had better goods—possibly seldom had their equals—and that you never had as low prices, even for less acceptable goods.

We shall entrust the goods to your care. When the 30 days end, but only if you are entirely satisfied, we shall expect you to pay the bill. If you can not say that they are the best value you ever had in their line, we shall cheerfully take back the unused portions and hand back the freight- and delivery-charges you paid. You will not need to pay anything for the quantities used in making a reasonable trial. You need not make any explanations or excuses. There will be no discussion. You will be under no obligation to say anything except that you want us to remove the goods. If you find anything unsatisfactory, we shall thank you for letting us know what was wrong. That will give us a chance to investigate. We have thousands of helpers and mistakes will sometimes happen.

There are no strings attached to this offer. Every word means exactly what it says. We have been established over 37 years. Our statements are safe and sane. Over two million perfectly satisfied regular customers, everywhere, are our references.

Should you want to send more than a $10 order, cash must be sent, but only for the amount in excess of $10. For every dollar's worth of Products paid for in advance, we shall send five cents worth of Products of your selecting, as a Present for Cash.

ORDER TO-DAY. WE TAKE ALL RISKS.

Questions You May Ask About The New Catalog.

We shall continue giving Certificates of Reward for Sales Service. They have the same value that Certificates have always had.

The change in the wording of the pricing in the new 68th Catalog does not change any part of our plan of Factory-to-Family dealing, nor the Rewards for Sales Service.

The only change is in substituting the word "Dollar" where before we said "Certificate".

All Certificates issued in the past are redeemable.

IF we were to compare the new Catalog with its predecessors, in the fewest possible words, we would say, "Everything in the new Catalog is just the same as in the former one—rewards, bonuses, terms, everything". If some of the new ways we have adopted of saying things puzzle you a bit, just think of this—"do just as you always have done in ordering of us". You will get the same or better values

Then, if you will remember, also, that one dollar stands for one Certificate and that a fraction of a dollar stands for an equal fraction of a Certificate you can dispel every difficulty as easily as adding two and two.

It is but natural that there may arise in your mind some questions regarding the new Catalog. Let us anticipate them here and answer them at the same time.

1. Question—Do we still give Certificates, Coupons and Due-bills?

Answer—Yes, just as we always have given them. Read paragraphs 53, 54 and 56 on page 6 of Catalog, and paragraph 97 on page 9.

2. Question—Does a Club Secretary get Rewards for sending orders, just as she has in the past?

Answer—Exactly. The Rewards are of the same proportion as those always given. Besides, there are new Extra Rewards for continuous service.

3. Question—Are the Certificates just as valuable as they always have been?

Answer—Yes. Indeed, they can be exchanged for Premium Merchandise more valuable than ever because never before have we offered such splendid values.

4. Question—What can I get for one of the Certificates issued as "One Certificate"?

Answer—All you ever could—either $1 worth of Premium Merchandise at the lower price, or $2 worth of Products at Catalog prices. There is no time limit to this offer, either.

5. Question—I have always understood that most "Ten Certificate" Premiums were worth $20 each at retail; is this also true of the Premiums that are priced at $10 in the new Catalog?

Answer—Yes. We have priced our Premium Merchandise low, even for factory prices, and now, just as much as ever, they would cost double or almost double our prices if purchased in retail stores.

6. Question—If I have two Certificates and want a Premium priced at $1.80, what shall I do?

Answer—Send the two Certificates and we will send you besides the Premium another Certificate for 20 cents for your future use; or, if selected, 40 cents, list-value, in Products.

7. Question—When I order Premium Merchandise in exchange for Certificates, what price do I pay—the high price or the low price?

Answer—You always pay the low price when ordering for Certificates.

8. Question—I have a Certificate that under the old way of pricing

I could obtain a two-Certificate Premium for. How can I get a Premium in the new Catalog priced $2.40?

Answer—Send the Certificate and 40 cents in money.

9. Question—I have a $5 Due-bill and wish to obtain $3.50 worth of Premium Merchandise; what shall I do?

Answer—Besides the $3.50 in Premium Merchandise at "with Products" price we will send you another Due-bill for $1.50, unless you want to order Products for the difference.

10. Question—How can I put off ordering Premium Merchandise until some future time?

Answer—We will send you a Certificate for every Reward due for Sales Service and a Due-bill for every bonus due on your purchases, and you may save them as long as you desire.

11. Question—Can I, by ordering Products, secure Premium Merchandise at the same time?

Answer—Yes.

12. Question—I want a Premium priced at "$7 when ordered with Products"; how can I get it with the Products?

Answer—In either of two ways: First, order $14 worth of Products, pay list-price for them and take the $7 Premium as a bonus. Second, order $10 worth of Products at Catalog-prices, paying one-half, or $5 for them, to which add $7 for the Premium, or a total of $12 for both.

13. Question—How shall I know when to pay the lower price of Premium Merchandise?

Answer—Whenever you order at least $10 worth of Products at one-half the Catalog-price. You then pay the lower price for as many articles of Premium Merchandise as you wish to order.

14. Question—When shall I pay the higher price for Premium Merchandise?

Answer—Only when you order Premium Merchandise alone; or when you order less than $10 worth of Products

If any question you have in mind is not answered here, please write to us about it. We shall gladly send you a personal answer by return mail.

Although we are fully aware that any sort of change in wording would be troublesome at first, we felt justified in venturing upon those we have made because we heartily believe it is for the best interests of our customers. The new wording is not difficult to understand. It is merely strange. To new customers it is plainer than the old wording. When you are more familiar with the new way of saying things, as you soon will be; when you understand how it permits closer pricing and fairer rewards, you will believe, with us, that WE ARE JUSTIFIED IN MAKING THE CHANGES.

On page 11 or page 144 of the Catalog is printed the Index to the Introduction. It is so arranged that you can easily find any subject you are interested in. Open your Catalog to either of these pages whenever you are in doubt of anything about the new Catalog. You will find the answer indexed in one of them, we are quite sure; but if it is not there, or is not plain to you, do not fail to write to us.

THE BEGINNING

1. An Appreciation. In this sixty-eighth edition of The Larkin Catalog, we wish heartily to thank the millions of customer-friends whose generous patronage has helped to build and is perpetuating this vast business. We here renew our pledge to serve them to the utmost of our ability. Larkin quality will as heretofore be kept at its high standard of excellence and prices at the lowest point consistent with that standard. Our customers know that our claim of serving them far better than middlemen do, is based upon facts. All others are invited to learn it by similar experience.

2. The Larkin Idea: Save all cost which adds no value, by direct dealing from factory to family. Manufacturers create value; middlemen add cost. Most manufactured goods are sold to the consumer at from two to four times the cost of production. This is because the goods pass through many hands; from the factory to the sales agent; from the sales agent to the wholesaler; from the wholesaler to the retailer; from the retailer to the consumer. Each "middleman" adds his expenses, his losses, his profits; all these are piled up in the retail price and must be paid by you. The Larkin Idea means to you good living through the open door to the best quality of fresh goods direct from the factory, at a large saving in outlay, simply because you do not here help to pay the expenses and profits of jobber, wholesaler, and retailer.

3. When you buy from us Pure Food Specialties, such as Baked Beans, Baking Powder, Chocolate, Cocoa, Extracts, Macaroni, Peanut Butter, Puddings, Salt, Spices, Teas, etc.; Soaps—laundry and toilet—Perfumes, Pharmacal and Toilet Preparations, Polishes, Paints and Varnishes, Notions and Sundries generally carried by Dry Goods, Drug and Hardware Stores, you will receive your factory-to-family savings in a Merchandise-Bonus in one of two forms, of your selection. There is only one condition. That is, that each order shall be for not less than $10 worth of Larkin Products, at our list-prices, which are the same as usually charged at stores.

4. In the first form this Merchandise-Bonus may consist of doubling the quantity of Products, shown on pages 12 to 30, making the cost of $20 worth, only $10. Buying in this way you save half the money you have been spending for these items. In the second form it consists of Premium Merchandise offered on pages 31 to 141. When you take your bonus in merchandise you otherwise must buy at the stores, you save its entire retail cost. Measured by ordinary retail values, the gain to you on many things, is equally as large as in the first form. Our time-tested method is a natural, easy way to save money, or to fare better. Your gain comes from buying direct from the factory where you are not forced to pay the triple tribute to middlemen. This has a very important bearing on your family's welfare. Do you realize this?

5. Our Policies. In 1875 we began our pioneer work of demonstrating the great benefits of the Larkin Idea—factory-to-family direct dealing. To the policies established at the outset we have closely adhered ever since. In many places we have three generations of satisfied customers. As the grandmothers were satisfied with Larkin Products, it is quite natural that their daughters and granddaughters deal with us.

6. Before we started the Larkin factory-to-family direct plan, no manufacturer shared profits with customers as we do. We at once realized that directly our buying-power became sufficiently influential, we could give our customers unusual advantages in quality and in price. In that faith we began and for more than a third of a century have extended real co-operation. From a modest inception has here been reared an ever-growing organization, world-wide in its ramifications. Over two million Larkin satisfied customers in this, and many in foreign lands, are the best practical evidence of the soundness of the Larkin Idea. That is better than theory.

7. Our Company exists to serve the public, and to make profits for itself, by the simple expedient of enabling customers to save money. Through our modern organization and vast buying-power we give more economical, more efficient and better service than others—not so perfectly equipped—can give. Without sacrificing quality we enable customers either to save amounts that grow larger each year, not counting compound interest, or else greatly to increase the comforts of the home. That this good work continues, explains the present proportions of our business. There will be no deviation from our progressive policies.

8. Better Living or Greater Saving. If you knew that acquaintance with our plan would secure you, say, $200 in cash, you might lay aside everything else and read this introduction now. In return for your reading you can get even more than $200 from us every year in additional goods without any additional cost, provided you are spending a dollar a day at retail stores for such home necessities as we offer and that you will hereafter order them from us. This statement is based upon the most accurate calculations. The more goods you order from us, the more valuable the bonus you will gain.

9. Or if you choose to buy Larkin Products at one-half of what you have paid for articles (such as the average retailer supplies) similar in names, but not always equal to our quality or our full weight and count, you will save $150 a year by spending 50 cents a day here, instead of $1 which you would otherwise have to pay at stores.

10. While making this introduction as brief as its great importance to both of us permits, we have remembered the proverb, "If I labor to be brief, I become obscure." Every page of this catalog will convey extra dollars of value to you with everything you order from it. However, paragraphs numbered 13 and 18 will tell you all you need to know to send a trial order. While by your orders you will favor us with a manufacturer's small profit, you will do yourself the much greater favor of either making a big saving in money, or a gain in home comforts. Larkin factory-to-family dealing is nearly perfect co-operation. We both shall lose money,—you, much the more—if you do not make frequent use of its opportunities.

11. Entire Satisfaction Always Guaranteed. Our customers' good will is valued much higher than the money involved in an order. Therefore we cheerfully accept back for credit, exchange or refund, if promptly reported, any article which does not satisfy you. Regardless of the enormous increase in our business, the careful attention which has been paid to each Product from the beginning, is and will be maintained. Prosperity but stimulates us to still greater efforts. Our policy is to give every customer the best service and the greatest satisfaction.

12. Saving Your Time. To save time in finding what you want, we have on page 144 an index of subjects dealt with, for quick finding. Every paragraph of this introduction is numbered. Observe the figures at left of each column. When the index or a letter from us refers to a paragraph, just turn to the number given. To make frequent turning to other pages unnecessary, yet have various subjects complete in themselves, a few paragraphs are repeated.

2 Every $5 expended for Larkin Products means a Cash Saving of $5, which saving is the profit-bonus.

13.  To Buy Larkin Products At One-half Of List-Prices. You will find Larkin Products are listed at the same prices (or less than) similar articles cost at retail stores. You may buy for one-half of our list-prices, $10 worth (or more) of our Products, without Premium Merchandise. Every $5 thus expended means a cash saving of $5 which saving is the Bonus.

14.  This is how it works in detail: Our regular 60-cents-a-pound tea will cost you only 30 cents. Sweet Home Soap, at 5 cents, will cost you only 2½ cents a bar. The same ratio of saving applies to every article on our list. If you want three of your neighbors to join you, each can select, for instance, $2.50 worth of Products and pay you only $1.25 after they have tried them and are satisfied. You will all have received double value.

15.  To any $10 order you may add such Products as you wish, at one-half of their list-prices. The freight-charge on a shipment of 100 pounds is no more than on one of ten pounds. Therefore it always pays customers to order in worth-while quantities. Several neighbors can band together and have goods shipped to one address, thus saving much in freight-charges.

16. Our Guaranty, paragraphs 22, 42 and 43, protects you against any possible loss. Today is your opportunity to begin saving money. To do so on this plan, you need no other understanding of Larkin Factory-to-Family direct dealing than you obtain from the preceding three paragraphs and from our detachable ready-for-use Order Blank facing front cover. To learn more of our Products than the order blank tells, turn to pages 12 to 30. Be sure to read our Thirty Days' Trial on Credit Offer on inside of front cover.

17.  Presents For Cash. To all orders that include Products of a list-value of $10 (or more), for every dollar's worth of Products ordered, we add as a Present for Cash, 5 cents' extra worth of Products, selected by you. Thus, on sending a cash order for $10 worth of Products at list-prices, we will add 50 cents' worth of Products free. If you send a Cash Order for $18 at list-prices; we will add 90 cents' worth of Products, free, etc.

18.  Bonus in Premium Merchandise. With every order for Larkin Products, described on pages 12 to 30, bought at list-prices, amounting to $10 or more, you will procure without charge, a bonus in merchandise, to the amount of one-half of your purchase of Products. This you will select from our 1600 offers of Premium Merchandise described and illustrated on pages 31 to 141. To make this very clear; suppose you order $20 worth of Products at list-prices, you will receive your profit-bonus in your selection of Premium Merchandise, to the value of $10, without charge. To order Products with Merchandise-Bonus to the amount you are entitled to, you need only to read "How to Buy Larkin Products and Premium Merchandise," on page 3, select goods from this Catalog, fill out, detach and mail the order blank facing first page.

19.  Old customer-friends will find that they will continue to receive the Factory-to-Family profit-bonus in the same Merchandise and of the same value as heretofore. This value is stated in terms clearer to all, especially to new customers. Nearly every article formerly priced only in certificates, will be found priced "with Products" in the same number of dollars. Hence any article formerly given for five certificates, is now $5. See also paragraph 54.

20.  To Buy Premium Merchandise. In this Catalog we give old customers, and new, an opportunity to buy most of the articles alone, i. e. without Products, at a fixed cash price. Turn to any of our offers of Premium Merchandise. You will find given the Factory-to-Family price, "with Products," followed by another price, somewhat higher, for the same article without Products. The latter is really much lower than the price you would have to pay elsewhere.

21. Orders for Merchandise without Products must always be accompanied by full payment. Our prices for Premium Merchandise will enable you to escape paying store-prices, which are, generally from 40 per cent. to 100 per cent. higher than ours. The store quality is not always equal to ours. You now, for the first time, can obtain anything listed herein, by sending the money required. You need not order any Products to get the article. To buy Premium Merchandise without Products, you need read only this and paragraph 20. No order blank is needed. Write on any paper and select goods from pages 31 to 141.

22. We guarantee all Premium Merchandise to be excellent in quality, design, workmanship and finish, and exactly as represented. The combined buying-power of over two millions of customers enables us to convey to you, at prices actually less than wholesale, the best output of leading manufacturers of standard lines. If purchased at retail, many of the articles would themselves cost as much as we charge for Products, with which they are obtainable as a bonus. You will find herein almost everything required for home and personal use and comfort. The Index on page 145 will be suggestive and very helpful.

23. Larkin Service saves Strength and Time. To get goods from Larkin is about as easy, simple and satisfactory as anything can be. It is very much easier than it is to "shop" for your needs, and far more profitable for you. Not to mention the fatigue, which seems a part of shopping everywhere, somehow you generally pay more in the end than you calculated.

24. The mail will carry your order to us—thousands of miles, if necessary. You know that when you mail us that order, you will escape all shopping woes. You have the assurance that you will not have to pay store-prices 40 per cent. to 100 per cent. higher than our goods cost you, (taking everything into account), and that our quality is the best—far superior to that obtainable in most stores.

25. Our Factory-to-Family direct plan makes it especially convenient for women at home to have their needs supplied without being compelled to go to town. We bring our vast stocks to your door. That is better for you than telephoning, for you could not reach by telephone any store which carries only fresh goods, as we do, ready for quick shipment. It would take two hours' fast walking merely to go through our factories and warehouses. If you stopped to select goods it would take longer. You can actually order more easily at home than you could in person. Look through this new Catalog and see the great variety of Larkin Products and Premium Merchandise, which are accurately described and illustrated. The indexes enable you to find what you want.

26. Really, you cannot afford to keep house without letting us supply your needs. Probably you need a number of things today. Certainly you will have to order many in a week or a month. Why not order from us today and allow time enough for the goods to reach you by freight? Facing first page is an Order Blank for your convenience. We should like you to use this. But if you prefer to write it on a plain sheet of paper, your order will be just as welcome. State what you want. Give your full name, address and nearest freight-depot. You need not send any money until you have tried and are entirely satisfied with the goods. The only condition is that you must order not less than $10 worth of Larkin Products at list-prices. This we have found to be the minimum unit, most economical for you and for us.

27. Have we made perfectly clear how easy it is to shop here by mail? Try our kind of service today. The longer you delay ordering, the longer you will put off increasing your income by the multiplied buying-power your dollars will have here. Everything you need to know, to order from us, is clearly stated in what you have just cost, had you bought them here, remembering the Merchandise-Bonus, by which the actual cost to you is only one-half of our list-prices given on Order Blank! Your figures will prove that there would have been an average saving of one-half. You would have received best quality, full weight and full count. Did you get these elsewhere? Were the goods fresh? Ours are. Ask yourself, by starting now, how large your possible gains will be in one, five, ten or more years. You did not think it possible that you "could save so much money," did you? It is—as millions have learned in the years they have been dealing with us. They know that the most expensive way to buy housekeeping necessities is at retail stores, in small quantities, (Magazines and Newspapers everywhere are warning millions to beware of

How To Buy Larkin Products And Premium Merchandise

It is one of the easiest things in the world to buy Larkin Products and Premium Merchandise direct from the factory. You will find Larkin Products described in full on pages 12 to 30 of this Catalog and Premium Merchandise on pages 31 to 141.

If You Want Products Alone

You may order $10 worth or more and pay only half the Catalog prices for them. As our Catalog-prices are the same as the usual store-prices, this enables you to get your household supplies for half what you would pay at the store for them.

EXAMPLES

\$10 worth of Products at $\frac{1}{2}$ the Catalog-prices..... \$5.00
\$11 worth of Products at $\frac{1}{2}$ the Catalog-prices..... \$5.50
etc.

If You Want Products And Premium Merchandise Together

You can buy any quantity of Products and any quantity of Premium Merchandise wanted, paying for the Products one-half the Catalog-prices, and for the Merchandise the very low "price when ordered with Products". The only condition is that your order include at least $10 worth of Products, for which you will pay only one-half the Catalog-prices.

EXAMPLES

\$10 worth of Products at $\frac{1}{2}$ Catalog-prices	\$ 5.00
Desk No. 350 (Page 82) at "price when ordered with Products"	5.00
Total for $10 worth of Products and Desk No. 350.....	$10.00
\$15 worth of Products at $\frac{1}{2}$ Catalog-prices	\$ 7.50
Desk No. 270 (Page 84) at "price when ordered with Products"	7.00
Desk-Chair No. 420 (Page 79) at "price when ordered with Products".....	2.00
Total for $15 worth of Products, Desk No. 270 and Desk-Chair No. 420.....	$16.50

If You Want Premium Merchandise Alone

You may purchase any quantity of it at the "sold alone" price given with each item. Though not quite so low as the "price when ordered with products" it is far less than the same article would cost elsewhere.

EXAMPLE

etc.

From the above you will readily see

How You Get Premium Merchandise Without Cost

Because when you buy, for instance, $10 worth of Products and pay only half-price (or $5) for them and use the five dollars thus saved to pay for Premium Merchandise, you get the Products and Premium Merchandise both, for the same amount you would pay for the Products alone at the store. The Premium Merchandise thus becomes the Profit-Bonus you get by Larkin Factory-to-Family direct dealing, for it is obtained by you without any increase in your regular living expenses.

read. Of course we should like you to read further, so that you may become more familiar with Larkin Service and understand why it is so beneficial. You will then learn about its several forms, of which—like thousands—you will want to avail, to obtain the generous rewards open to those who will render us a little pleasant service. These are explained in paragraphs 51, 59, etc.

28. To Count Your Profits. On Order Blank (facing first page) please check all articles which you must buy regularly, several times a month. Will you then refer to your bills from retail stores and make a list of the quantities and prices you paid for the articles checked? (It is always agreeable to figure how much money you can make.) Opposite the amounts paid, place the reduced amounts those checked items would have paying prices "inflated by middlemen.") If you do not know, send us a trial order and make a comparison. You may send back our goods at our expense if you are not satisfied.

29. Suggestive Examples of Benefits. Whoever wants to reduce household and personal expenses or live more comfortably, can do it. To learn how, will need a little attention; but the reward will be great. Your benefits will begin with that order, which you will want to send, after learning how easily customers save money or get more value for the same money by dealing with us. Although we never offer "something for nothing," the Larkin Idea always gives customers much more than they could get elsewhere. These pages explain why we are able to do far better for our customers than other channels of trade will or can do.

30. To show how the Larkin Idea works, let us assume that you need a chiffonier like our No. 950 shown on page 94. You are not likely to find a chiffonier of this quality in ordinary stores. Only honest oak is used throughout. The drawers are full size; their entire capacity is available. (In most chiffoniers resembling this, the drawers are shortened at the back—"pinched," to slice off cost.) If you bought such a chiffonier at retail, it alone would cost you at least $10. The storekeeper could not afford to allow anything additional for your $10, because he must get what he paid for the piece, with enough extra to cover his business expenses, profit, bad debts, etc. But by dealing direct with us, on a one-profit basis, your $10 will buy $10 worth of Larkin Products and you will get the chiffonier besides! That chiffonier represents your gain, that is, your bonus. Your income has been increased by its value. You will live that much more comfortably, without added cost.

31. Suppose you look at this transaction in another way. As you are sure to need all such things very soon, let us say that it will be good to be forehanded and buy now, an assortment of flavoring extract, soaps, tea, etc., which you know will cost $10 at a retail store. If, instead of buying them at stores, you will order the household supplies from us direct, you will get the $10 worth of Products, and the chiffonier—all for $10. You can procure any of the 2000 or more articles of Products and Merchandise described and illustrated herein, always with proportionate saving, ease and satisfaction.

32. If however, you want a trial order, of Products only, send it to us with $5 in cash. You will receive at list prices $10 worth of Products, and have quick tangible proof of savings. The high quality of the Products you will get from us, will be much superior to the grades supplied at the usual run of retail stores. One trial will convince you. Every day's delay in ordering here will mean a day's lost profits to you!

33. Do our offers seem "incredible?" They are not. Does our business seem to you mysterious? It is not. Remember that we have been successfully conducting it for over 37 years. The more you learn—by dealing here—of factory prices which are impossible for consumers to learn of elsewhere, the plainer it will become.

34. Buying At Retail. In fairness to all we wish to make clear that we have no feeling whatever against "middlemen" personally. But we do not favor the present wasteful system of retailing. Why not? Because the retailer does an expensive business. He conducts a soliciting business, because he collects orders. He does an express business, because he delivers goods. He does a banking business, because he grants credit. Is it fair for him to charge this costly service to you? You go to his store and pay cash. Does he treat you as well as the customer who owes him hundreds of dollars and may—probably will—never pay? He caters more to "bad pay" customers than to good ones. He hopes some day to collect what these "bad pay" people owe him, and is careful not to offend, lest they leave him without settling. Does he give you lower prices or a discount for cash? He does not. Why not? Because it takes all the cash he can get from "good pay" customers, to make up what he loses at the end on irresponsibles.

35. When our customers dealt elsewhere, they bought articles which had paid tribute to three classes of tradesmen. The more important "middlemen" had added enough to their prices to cover bad debts, expenses, losses, rent, salaries, shrinkage, etc. and their profits. True, they did not see these increases; but they were there. Of course the retailer added what he needed to cover most of these items, and they paid his price.

36. Will "competition" help you? Hardly. Instead of insuring economy in distribution, it merely means that stores multiply. The consumer must bear the burden of helping to maintain numerous small stores in places where one or two would suffice. Here is what Thomas A. Edison published in the "Saturday Evening Post" in March, 1912: "Impossible as it may seem, it nevertheless is true, that the more grocery-stores in a town of given population, the higher prices the people in that town are obliged to pay for their groceries, and the same is true of drugs, dry goods, and every other commodity." But in dealing direct with us you save, either in cash or in Merchandise-Bonus, the triple tribute which, if you deal elsewhere, will go to jobber, wholesaler, and retailer. In dealing here you pay only one profit—the smallest—the manufacturer's. On Larkin Products you save one-half retailers' prices. Is that not worth while?

37. When Mayor Gaynor in April, 1912, inspected Washington Market, New York, with Mrs. Julian Heath, President of the Housewives' League, she told him, "We need a chain of markets all over the city in order to do away with many of the middlemen. It is the only way to reduce the cost of living—to bring consumer and producer together. We must awaken interest on the part of every housewife, and try to make her willing to insist upon full weights and measures, upon cleanliness in the handling of food, etc." The Housewives' League has over 160,000 members—a force to be reckoned with. The members rebel against inflated prices.

38. With pleasurable pride we mention, that in 1875 we originated bringing "consumer and producer together." Women all over our land are awakening to the need for economizing. They are seeking to buy from "first hands." We are first hands.

39. Short Weights, Count and Measures. The weights, measures and count of those articles you must buy daily are very important. Recent great seizures in large cities of hundreds of thousands of dishonest scales and measures, should impress upon consumers the risks in dealing at many "corner groceries", etc. Some of the seized scales recorded eight pounds, but the articles weighed only five and one-half pounds. Some seized peck measures, with false bottoms, proved over one-third short! For every shortage in weight or measure, a multitude of buyers habitually paid that much more—although they did not know the deception. Some other things follow which every housewife should know before ordering necessities. We point them out for customers' better information. Without knowing the truth, how can people escape being misled?

40. Well did the State Sealer of Weights and Measures for Idaho publish this official statement in April, 1912: "When a manufacturer brands his goods, he must put on the package the actual net weight of the goods inside. He can not include in his weights the package itself, a saucer, a handful of advertising or other matter of that kind. The consumer is buying the goods and he wants all that is coming to him for the money which he pays."

The consumer gets that here.

41. Adulterations. Prices mean little unless considered in connection with the article to which they apply. Adulteration still goes on in many places. Adulterated goods, although called "cheap," are unsafe and never worth as much as pure. Even a "pure" article may be of inferior quality. This should be kept in mind when comparing prices. For example; Vanilla extract may be pure, but the quality may be rank. It depends upon the grade of vanilla beans used, and how they were treated. Vanilla, scientifically extracted from the best grade of Mexican beans, is worth far more than preparations unscientifically made from coarse beans, "cuts," mouldy stock, or substitutes. There are 5,987 preparations in this country offered as "vanilla extract." If all of these were pure, they would require more vanilla beans than the whole yearly crop yields. As Mr. Edison said, "They sell us salt guaranteed to keep dry and make us pay salt price for the chalk they adulterate with."

42.  Guaranty of Larkin Co. To comply with the Federal Food and Drugs Act, the U. S. Serial No. 3315 appears on our packages. But we stood for perfect purity of everything bearing our label before the agitation for "pure foods" was started. After that Act was passed, no change was needed in our methods, for all of the requirements of the law had been fulfilled from the beginning.

43. At the outset we established the following Guaranty, to which we have ever since adhered:

We guarantee the perfect purity and sound sanitary condition of everything bearing the Larkin brand. If, after thirty days' trial, any article supplied by us fails to satisfy you, we shall at our expense, remove it and hand back the amount you paid for it,—also freight- and delivery-charges. For any reasonable quantity used before you found the article unsatisfactory, we shall make no charge.

44. This world-wide Guaranty applies to all Larkin Products. How could we have kept it standing for over 37 years, were it not that only the highest standard of excellence prevails here? We always place quality ahead of everything else, for on that the health and pleasure of the family very largely depend. The best quality is always cheapest in the end.

45.  Quality. All the Products illustrated and described on pages 12 to 30 are manufactured in our own factories, or under our own control under the best hygienic conditions. The quality and purity of the articles can not be surpassed. Through many years of specializing we have reached and maintain the highest standard of excellence. What is it not worth for you to know that all Larkin Products reflect that standard? It deserves repeating that quality always receives our first consideration. Our Food, Pharmacal and many other Preparations are not touched by human hands, from the raw materials until the finished articles leave our factories in sealed packages. Larkin Laundry and Toilet Soaps are pure, sweet, and last long. Our Perfumes and Toilet Preparations are of very fine quality. All of our Products are made from the best materials, under the supervision of experienced, devoted, expert managers and chemists of high standing. Our many years of knowing how enable us to serve you well at all times.

46. In Oct., 1911, the Second International Exposition of Pure Foods and Beverages was held in St. Louis, Mo. The conditions established were very severe, and shut out various concerns which knew they could not comply with them. Every accepted exhibitor had to submit samples of his foods to the laboratory in charge of the State Board of Chemists, to another in charge of the St. Louis Dairy Co. and to a third which the management operated. To judge these laboratory tests aright you should know that their requirements were far harder to meet than are those stipulated in the Federal Food and Drugs Act. Every Product of the Larkin Co. met all the requirements of these three Boards. We challenge the world to show a better record! Safeguarding every article you get from us is our assurance of its high quality, backed by more than 37 years of honorable dealing, which has never been impeached.

47. When you buy direct from us, you will always be sure of uniform quality. Foodstuffs supplied by retail stores often reach customers after having been stored for weeks (or months) in wholesalers' stocks and on retailers' shelves. You will agree with this, from your own experience, after having had to return stale, musty and sour goods from time to time, to the retailer. Larkin pure food specialties are not of this sort. They are perfectly fresh and reach your table, direct from the factory, shortly after preparation.

48. Prices. As pioneers of Factory-to-Family direct dealing, we knew the importance of low prices over a third of a century ago. Meantime we proved to millions of housewives the enormous economy of buying here at factory prices.

49. We guard against necessity of frequent price-changes resulting from market fluctuations by our forehanded planning and large cash buying. Let us tell you briefly how our "fixed price" method benefited customers recently in two important suggestive cases, which follow:

(a) After buying our season's supply of a certain crop, the packers offered us thousands of dollars profit to let them resell to others at higher prices. We declined, and gave customers the benefit of our original low purchase. Throughout the season retailers charged higher than their earlier prices for this article, for they paid jobbers more than our customers paid us.

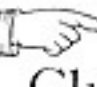

(b) By a fortunate purchase of pelts (skins) we procured an ample stock before prices sharply advanced. We could have sold these skins at a handsome profit and used other and cheaper skins for orders, as would have been necessary but for our fortunate purchase. We used these more valuable skins in our garments sold at very low prices. Our customers got the benefit.

50. Are you not glad that here and now you have the opportunity to buy goods for one-half of the prices charged by retail stores which you patronized? You can buy direct from us—safely, satisfactorily, and more pleasantly than at many stores. Here your dollars will go twice as far as in them. This is true, regardless of where you live, for distance is no barrier in dealing with us.

51.  Rewards For Sales Service. We reward old customers (paragraph 52) and Club Secretaries (paragraph 62), who co-operate with us by increasing orders for or extending the sales of Larkin Products, (paragraph 59). This is possible because such services save the expense of manufacturers' salesmen and the cost of advertising. The Rewards are either in the form of Larkin Products, or in Premium Merchandise of your selecting, at the rate of one dollar's net worth for each $10 paid, for which Products to a list-value of at least $10 are ordered. On orders in excess of $10 a Reward is given of 5 cents worth of goods for each additional 50 cents remitted for which an added 50 cents worth of Products is ordered. For instance, in a $17.50 order, including at least $17.50 worth of Products, the Reward for Sales Service would be $1.75.

To obtain our generous rewards for services, all orders must conform to the rules given in paragraph 58. After reading our rules you can begin taking orders today and will obtain the liberal rewards we offer. We shall always do our part to assist you—yes more.

We highly value all assistance rendered by our loyal customer-friends who increase orders for, or extend the sale of Larkin Products. The best thing in the world will not sell itself. The most effective way to make a thing known is by the spoken word. That is preferable to any medium. We are happy to realize that while we are working in the factories to give customer-friends the best of everything, they are co-operating by recommending Larkin Products to their neighbors.

52.  Whoever has made a $10 purchase, directly or as a Club-member, is an "old customer." Every member of the household of an old customer may procure Rewards, but the head of the family must sign all communications. Her (or his) full name must be written on orders and all letters.

53. Certificates of Rewards For Sales Service. A Certificate is an acknowledgment of sales service performed, and entitles the owner to select Products or Premium Merchandise in exchange. It is issued only when the owner postpones selecting the reward, through a preference for a higher priced article for which she intends to accumulate enough Certificates to pay.

54. Hereafter, Certificates will be issued in money value, but will be payable just as heretofore, in Products or in Premium Merchandise worth much more at retail, than the amount named in the Certificates.

55. There are still some articles in this catalog offered as heretofore "for Certificates" only. Owners of Certificates issued since Sept. 1st, 1912, may apply them on these articles, at the rate of one dollar for each "Certificate" at which the article is priced.

56. Holders of Larkin Certificates issued before Sept. 1, 1912, of a value of "One Certificate," "Two Certificates," "Three Certificates," etc., lose nothing, but rather gain by the change made in our pricing system, as will be seen by comparing this catalog with previous editions. Outstanding Certificates are redeemable in Premium Merchandise at the rate of $1 worth for each one-certificate of Premium-Value for which they were issued. Holders will receive as much, or more, Merchandise for each Certificate, as was given before values in cash were established. When it is desired to apply outstanding certificates to obtaining Larkin Products, each one-Certificate of Premium-Value will entitle you—as heretofore—to $2 worth of Larkin Products at the list-prices stated on pages 12 to 30.

57. Certificates, like money, represent value and therefore should be carefully guarded.

58.  Rules Governing Rewards For Sales Service. To receive a Reward for Sales Service, each Order must conform to ALL of the following five requirements. No departure can be made from these simple rules established for our valued customers' benefit. All of our customers are treated alike. Each enjoys the same benefits as her neighbors.

1. The Order must be sent by an "Old Customer." See paragraph 52. Or it must come from a Secretary of a Club-of-Ten. See paragraph 62.
2. $10 (or more) in cash must be sent with the Order.
3. The full amount of the Order must be sent in advance.
4. The order must include a selection of Larkin Products to the value of $10 (or more) at list-prices.
5. The order must show performed and specify one of the four forms of service defined in paragraphs 59-63.

When the five Requirements are met, a Reward is given, in Products or Premium Merchandise to the amount stated in paragraph 51.

No reward is given on that part of any order which is paid for by Coupons, Due-Bills, Rewards for Sales Service, or on purchases of Premium Merchandise not obtained as a bonus.

59.  The Four Forms of Service. There are four forms of service that may be performed by Larkin customers, for any, or all of which, generous rewards are paid in goods. You may avail yourself of any and begin to profit today. See paragraphs 60-63.

60. Recommended Order. This service only requires that you send us an order obtained from a new customer; that is, from a member of a family of which no member ever received a shipment from us. See paragraph 64.

61. Neighborhood Order. This service only requires that you send us an order procured from ten (or more) families whose names you are to furnish if requested. See paragraphs 65 and 66.

62. Club-of-Ten Secretary's Order. This service requires the organizing of a Club-of-Ten to send a series of ten (or more) orders for Larkin Products for distribution among the ten (or more) members. Each Order is known as a "Club-of-Ten Secretary's Order." With its first order the names of the Club-of-Ten members must be sent. Use the form for List of Club Members which you will find on page 8, or, a copy thereof. See paragraphs 67-84. In connection with Club-of-Ten Orders, the Excess Order plan described in paragraphs 87-90 will when used be additionally profitable to you.

63. Economy Club Secretary's Order. This Service requires no formal organization but only the procuring of ten or more persons who will give you their orders for home necessities. They may order as much or as little, and as often or as seldom, as they like. You assemble and send us the combined order. See paragraphs 91-95.

64. Recommended Orders. The spoken endorsements of satisfied customers are our best advertisements. They are very highly appreciated. If ever deceived elsewhere, some strangers may want the assurance of some one they know, that it will be safe to deal here. They can "hardly believe it possible to save as much money" as we insist can be saved by buying direct from us. They "do not see" how our goods can be of best quality, and be sold "at such low prices." They feel timid about sending a first order. Nor can we blame them. (Perhaps you once felt as they do.) They have not seen our vast factories and neither know our exceptional facilities, nor our long record. Neither do they know our sincere desire to serve. But these incredulous neighbors know and will trust you. You can obtain their introductory orders, because they will follow your advice. On ordering, they, and you will profit by the substantial benefits of practical co-operation.

After they send one order and receive our Products they will never doubt again. When you tell them of our guarantee in paragraph 43 and the great benefits of the Larkin Idea, they will not need urging to order direct from us and save middlemen's charges. Our customer-friends enjoy here all the exceptional benefits of their combined very influential buying-power and our economical policy. We buy, for cash, in different parts of the world, at prices far lower than those must pay who are compelled to trade in a small way and on credit. We handle everything in vast quantities and procure sundry materials and articles which others can not get. That is why we can often do for you what others can not.

65. Neighborhood Orders. Children, as well as grown-ups, may take Orders for Larkin Laundry and Toilet Soaps, Toilet Preparations, Teas, Baking Powder, Extracts and other home necessities. Thousands have done so and thereby procured beautiful furniture for the home—their rooms in particular—which they prize for life. A bright girl or an energetic boy can get neighbors to order soaps and other articles, almost at any time. In a couple of days either will have orders amounting to at least $10.

66. We want to enlist our young friends in the Larkin service. Not only will it be a good first lesson to them in business training, salesmanship and finance, but the satisfaction our goods will give to the young peoples' "customers," will make these juvenile sales-people our friends and customers for life—a valuable asset. Your daughter can quickly own a fine writing-desk, high-grade camera, sweater, and many things, by a few hours' work after school. Of course, your son has the same opportunity. They may do the work together. It is astonishing how readily housekeepers encourage children. They know that Larkin goods will be all right.

67. The Club-of-Ten. Introduction. The Club-of-Ten is a banding together of ten or more persons to order and pay for Larkin Products in lots of as little as one dollar's worth at a time. These persons will still receive for ten $1 payments the same value in Merchandise-Bonus, as buyers of $10 worth receive, as stated in paragraph 18.

68. The forming and conducting of a Club-of-Ten is about the easiest thing in the whole Larkin plan. One who can not conveniently spare $10 at one time, is not deprived of any of the benefits of Larkin Factory-to-Family direct dealing. Membership in a Club-of-Ten makes it very easy for all to obtain Larkin Products, and the Merchandise-Bonus, at as small an outlay as only $1 at a time, even once a month, (if so agreed among the members) although weekly orders are proportionately more advantageous.

69. The Secretary receives the entire generous Rewards for Sales Service clearly explained in paragraph 51.

70. Master the Plan. If it seems good to you to increase your income by a little pleasant service, before starting the work please carefully read the rules in paragraphs 76 to 82. All these rules must be observed to procure Rewards and best service. It must be clearly understood that the Club-of-Ten is a private organization, composed of ten or more members. The organizer may, or may not, be a member. A Club Secretary is not necessarily a member of each Club she conducts. Many Secretaries conduct several Clubs at a time and do not belong to all. The Larkin Co. can not take part in a Club and must be excused from all responsibility for details. Members arrange these themselves. We treat every Club Order received as a separate transaction. This prevents confusion.

71. Three Ways To Obtain The Bonus. One way is to be selected and agreed to by all the Members. The First and most popular Way is for one member's selection of Merchandise-Bonus to be ordered with each shipment of Products and delivered to the member whose turn it is to receive it. The order of succession must be arranged by the Secretary at the time of organizing.

72. Second Way: With each shipment of Products the equivalent Merchandise-Bonus value may be ordered by the Secretary, in the form of Coupons described in paragraphs 97-99. In this way each member would receive in Coupons, one-half the amount paid for Products at list-prices.

73. Third Way: The Merchandise-Bonus may be in the form of double value of Products. If this way be chosen each member would receive Products to the list-value of double the amount paid. See paragraph 13.

74. Club Secretary's Benefits. For combining the payments and orders—one taken from each of the ten members—the Secretary will receive, first: a Reward for Sales Service as provided in paragraph 51. Second: as a present for Cash, 5c extra worth of Products for each $1 worth of Products ordered at list-prices.

75. As Club Members do not at any one time advance $10, they are not entitled to a Present for Cash. The Present for Cash, (like the Reward for Sales Service) belongs to the Secretary. Both are the outcome of her having started the Club. They are her compensation for combining and sending the assembled orders of the members. No member will object to her receiving them, especially as any member may herself organize and conduct a Club-of-Ten and will obtain similar rewards.

76.  Rules Governing Clubs-of-Ten. The rules which follow if observed will insure Rewards and promote best service.

77. How To Begin. The organizer will get ten (or more) persons to join in forming a Club-of-Ten, whose object is to obtain Larkin Products and Larkin Merchandise-Bonus. Neighbors to whom you explain this easy-payment plan, will gladly join in starting a Club, of which you will be Secretary. Housewives and bachelor-girls are very anxious to—in fact must—reduce living-expenses, if quality be not sacrificed thereby. Many want to know where they can join a Larkin Club in their vicinity. You will do them a service by making yourself known to them.

78. How To Assemble Members' Orders for Sending to Larkin Co. On stated days each Member will give the Secretary an Order (see paragraph 83) for an agreed quantity of Products, say $1 worth. The Secretary should fix, with due notice at the beginning, certain days in each month when the Club's order will be sent. In addition to their agreed Club Share, members may purchase Products in any quantity, at list-prices, and with each added 5c worth will receive a Coupon. (See paragraphs 97-99). If wanted, Coupons must be asked for on the order blank. In the space provided in the Member's Order-Record Book (paragraph 83), the Secretary receipts for money collected from the member. When it is the member's turn to receive it, her order for Merchandise-Bonus should be added. The member is entitled without charge to Merchandise-Bonus to the value of one-half of her purchases of Products at list-prices. If there be an "excess" value of Premium Merchandise ordered by the member, she must pay its price to the Secretary at the time of ordering. But such excess may be paid wholly in Coupons figured on the basis of 2½c each. Or should the member not own Coupons, she may order and pay for $2 worth of Products at list-prices, to cover each one-dollar of the excess price of the merchandise ordered.

79. Organization. The organization is completed by the simple act of the Secretary filling out and sending us a list of the Club Members on the form which follows; or on a copy of it.

To help us avert errors in serving you, please see that above names and addresses can be easily read. The list of names must be sent with the first order of a new, and of each re-organized Club.

80. Distribution of Products and Freight-Charges. The members' order-slips should be held by Secretary as her delivery-record. Before delivery, all the Products received should be carefully checked with copy of the order in Secretary's Record-Book. The member who receives the Merchandise-Bonus must pay the freight- and delivery-charges on it and on the $10 worth of Products. Each excess-purchaser must pay a proportionate part of freight on Products ordered in excess of regular Club share. Example:—If freight on $10 worth of Products is 40c., charge on 25c. excess-purchase should be 1c.

81. To Insure Satisfaction. The Secretary should collect the money for the Products when receiving orders. Club business being cash, no credit should be granted.

82. Withdrawal of Members. If a member finds it necessary to withdraw, the Club may be continued by securing a substitute for the withdrawing member. The Secretary should write promptly for directions, giving us full information.

83. Secretaries' and Members' Order-Books Free. To assist Secretaries in organizing and conducting Clubs easily, without confusion or mistakes, we furnish the free literature mentioned on our Order Blank.

It includes (1) Secretary's Order-Record Book with a space for combining the ten (or more) individual orders from Members in one complete copy of an Order to Larkin Co.; Record of Merchandise-Bonus selected; Record of Coupons selected; Amount of Remittance and Coupons sent, and the Quantity of each Product, with the total Value at list-prices. After the order has been put together as one, it should be written on our Order Blank. (2) Members' Order-Book, containing a Complete Price-List of Products, and ten Order-Slips for Members' use in ordering Products from the Secretary.

Before your supply runs out, request further printed matter on our Order Blank.

84. Helpful Literature Free. On request, we send leaflets which explain the entire Club-of-Ten plan; also booklets, (much smaller than our catalog) showing some of our most popular Premium Merchandise.

If you want copies of the Catalog to distribute among Club-members, we will pack the number requested, with your order. Please give them only to those who will appreciate them as money-savers. We will also send as many copies of The Larkin Idea and Larkin News as are asked for.

85. Sociables. The social value and popularity of the Club will be increased by occasional entertainments. Many Clubs hold sociables on arrival of each shipment. These delightful functions combine domestic economy and pleasure. They are given either at the Secretary's home, or at that of the member whose turn it is to receive the Merchandise-Bonus. Members await the stated gatherings with agreeable anticipation. Many successful organizers find it easy to continue Clubs indefinitely, and increase membership by these affairs. The organizer soon gains a reputation for attractive Club meetings, and without asking, receives applications for membership. Women with whom she has slight acquaintance (or none) very often apply, because they "heard so much about the good times the Larkin Club had" at her house. Thus enduring friendships often have arisen.

86. To foster this type of club life, we supply a folder of Entertainment Suggestions, free on request. The programs outlined therein are informal, entertaining, very inexpensive, and require little preparation. On request, we shall gladly tell you how we assist prospective Secretaries to form Clubs-of-Ten. That office presents an opportunity for increasing income in a dignified way, without hard work.

87. Excess Orders. Before reading what follows, please carefully consider what appears in paragraph 97 (under Coupons) also paragraph 98, so that you will realize the benefits which Excess Orders confer and how easily these benefits may be obtained.

88. An "Excess Order" means a purchase by a Club-of-Ten member in addition to her agreed part of each order sent by her Club—or by any person not a member of the Club, of any quantity of Larkin Products from 5c worth up. The excess purchase may either be at list-prices, or it may be at one-half of list-prices. If the excess quantity be paid for at list-prices, the customer will receive Coupons if she requests them from the Secretary. These Coupons will entitle her to Merchandise-Bonus explained in paragraph 97.

If however, the Products be paid for at only one-half of list-prices, the double value the customer obtains in Products constitutes the Merchandise-Bonus. Either plan is open to any one, at her option.

89. The Rewards for Sales Service, and Present for Cash on Excess Orders, are given to the Secretary in the same ratio as on all orders for which they are given.

90. This "Excess" plan is helpful in reducing transportation-charges. It costs little more to have a $20 order sent than it does one for ten dollars. Few freight-bills exceed $1. This amount can be earned by ordering $2 worth of additional Products at list-prices—the cost of which is only $1.

91. Economy Club. Be sure before reading what follows, to carefully notice what is said under Coupons in paragraphs 97 and 98.

Ten or more persons can promise one of their number—whom they will appoint Secretary—their orders for Larkin Products, to be given at such times and in such quantities as needed. They need not agree to order definite quantities at set times. They may order as much, or as little as they like. They may pay for Products at one-half list-prices, or they may pay list-prices and accumulate Coupons, until any desired article of merchandise offered as a bonus is obtainable for them. The whole matter is entirely informal. The members constitute an Economy Club, which can be conducted with the utmost ease. Anybody may join at any time. An order must, however, be given with the cash to the Secretary, who will include it with the other members' orders.

92. Economy Club members benefit at exactly the same rate as if they were Club-of-Ten members. The regularity of distributions of Products and Premium Merchandise, and the sure, regular Merchandise-Bonus to members, make the Club-of-Ten preferable. Those, however, who are not yet willing to agree to pay stated amounts for stated quantities of Products, at regular periods, (as required for membership in Clubs-of-Ten) but who nevertheless wish to profit by the great gains obtainable in values, or in savings effected, by Larkin Factory-to-Family direct dealing, can enjoy all its benefits by joining an Economy Club.

93. Be particular to write in the Coupon-space provided on Order Blank, the number of Coupons you desire for distribution. When the necessary Coupons have been accumulated they may be exchanged for a desired article of Premium Merchandise as a bonus. If however, a member decides not to apply her Coupons upon the price of any article of Merchandise-Bonus, she may at any time exchange them for their value in Products of her own selecting.

94. Freight-Charges Shared. On delivery, each Club-member must pay the Secretary the freight- and delivery-charges on the Premium Merchandise she selects. The freight- and delivery-charges on Products must be divided among all those who receive them, each paying in proportion to the total list-value of Products received.

95. The Rewards to Secretaries are in every respect the same on Economy Club Orders, as for Clubs-of-Ten. See paragraphs 51-52. Each order must be for at least $10 worth of Products and should be sent by you (the Secretary) on our regular Order Blank.

96. Due Bills. A Due Bill is a convenient form of acknowledgment of the purchase of any quantity of Larkin Products, issued when you wish to postpone selecting the Merchandise-Bonus due you. It entitles the one named therein to Merchandise-Bonus of a given value. Due Bills may be accumulated until they amount to enough to procure any goods wanted. On sending them to us, whatever goods you select to their value, will be shipped to you. When preferred, Due Bills will be redeemed in Products.

97. Coupons. Coupons are tokens of Merchandise-Bonus due. They are issued only when asked for by Secretaries of Clubs, for distribution to purchasers of Larkin Products in small quantities, (who pay therefor at list-prices) but not in quantities large enough to entitle them to a selection of Premium Merchandise without cost, until they have sent several orders. For the accommodation of such purchasers, we issue Coupons to the full list-value of the Products ordered. Coupons should never be asked for when a Merchandise-Bonus is due to one person. Due Bills should then be asked for. We repeat—Coupons are only for distribution with Products bought in small quantities at list-prices. A single Coupon signifies that the holder, having purchased 5c worth of Products at list-prices, is entitled to a bonus of 2½¢ in Premium Merchandise, or of 5c in Products at list-prices. The holder must accumulate Coupons until enough are held to obtain the goods desired. When the member has accumulated the Coupons necessary to obtain a desired article, she can in most instances reduce freight-charges, by asking the Secretary to send us the Coupons so that the article wanted may be shipped with other goods.

98. Duplicate Coupons cannot be issued, for if lost, the originals are likely to be presented for redemption by the finder. Carefully guard your Coupons. We send on request, books in which holders should paste Coupons to avert loss.

Coupons are not given on purchases of Premium Merchandise.

99. Easy If You Use Our Books. To keep a record of Orders, we furnish on request Club-Members' Order-Books (one for each member), also a Secretary's Order-Record Book described in paragraph 83.

100. Shipment of Orders. Goods are usually shipped the second day after we receive your order. (Some shipments leave a day later.) Allow plenty of time for them to reach you. By ordering a little ahead of time, your goods will be on hand before your supplies "run out."

101. Some customers have thought when we wrote that goods would "be shipped in a couple of days," it meant they would be delivered at that time at their local freight-depot. "Shipped" always means when goods are delivered to the transportation lines at point where shipped. After that date, sufficient time should be allowed for them to reach destination. When they will arrive and be "delivered" to you, depends much upon the distance, and facilities of the railroad or steamship lines.

102. Shipment of Premium Merchandise. Unless otherwise indicated in the offer, merchandise, (including mailable items), is shipped with Larkin Products, if possible, in the same package, to save charges. When our offer mentions postage, it will be required only if the article be ordered shipped by itself.

103. Premium Merchandise is not shipped separately to Cal., Ore., or Wash. unless no increased freight-charge would result. Merchandise for Canada, or foreign countries, always travels with the Products, to avert increased freight-charges and handling.

104. If it be cheaper to ship an article direct from the maker, that fact appears in our offer. The largest and heaviest articles are made in several factories, so that many Eastern and Western Customers will have the benefit of lower freight-rates than could be had from Buffalo. Shipments are always made from the factory nearest to you.

105. When an asterisk (*) precedes information as to location of the factory to be used, that mark concerns only customers West of Mississippi River. The (*) is to make clear that in their cases the article referred to will be shipped with the Products. Hence if the offer reads, *"From Central New York," customers West of Mississippi River will understand that the article referred to will be shipped with the Products.

106. We reserve the right to ship Premium Merchandise from the factory direct whenever this plan will be more economical, in freight, storage and handling. This applies only to bulky articles,—usually furniture,—and only those not made in Buffalo, (or Peoria or Chicago.)

107. About one hundred of our larger articles are shipped, by themselves, direct to our customers from the factories where made. That reduces charges. We are able to offer these larger articles to customers on more liberal terms than would be possible if we had to add charges for freight to our warehouses, storage, handling and re-shipping from there. These savings exceed the somewhat higher freight-charges, to places located farther from the factory-shipping-point, than they are from Buffalo. All customers living nearer the factory-shipping-point than Buffalo, benefit by a further saving in freight-charges, because of the shorter distance goods have to be hauled.

108. The facilities of scores of factories, (the entire output of 15 of which we control), are taxed to supply orders for the numerous varieties of our 1600 articles. All these factories were chosen in localities where leadership in their special line of work had been attained. You get the benefits. By our co-operative policy we save customers "all cost that adds no value." We avert handling and transporting the same goods twice—often in opposite directions. They travel only in a direct line from factory to customer.

109. "Made to order" garments are shipped alone, from Buffalo, to avert delay in shipment of Products.

110. The postage on some articles varies with the sizes, slight differences in weight of materials, etc. Under mailable offers appear the amounts required to cover postage. Our figures are based upon averages. The actual postage may vary slightly. Sometimes it may be a little in our favor; at other times it will be against us. Packages which need 32 cents (or less) postage, should be mailed. That is generally cheaper and never costs more than expressage. Mail deliveries are generally less troublesome. If you are absent the carrier leaves the package, whereas, the expressman would carry it away and only deliver the next day or several days later.

111. Unmailable Premiums, of low value, should always be ordered with other goods. That will prevent paying the relatively high freight-charge which would result from being sent separately. If packed with other goods, the freight will be trifling.

112.  Safe Arrival of Goods Guaranteed. We guarantee the safe arrival of goods if ordered shipped to a freight-station in charge of an authorized agent; but not otherwise.

113. The station freight-agent should notify you on arrival of your goods. If there be unusual delay, be sure first to inquire of him if goods are at station. If not, please write to us. But before writing, allow reasonable time for them to reach you. Although freight sometimes seems slow, the charges are very much less than expressage would be.

114. If, despite our care in packing, any breakage or shortage should be discovered before goods are taken from depot, do not accept the article damaged until a full statement of damage, or a note of what be missing is endorsed upon the freight-bill by R. R. Agent. If after receipt of the goods at your home any breakage or shortage is found, report it immediately to the R. R. Agent, either personally or by letter. Send endorsed freight-bill and copy of any such letter to us at once. We shall immediately adjust the claim with perfect fairness to you. We need this information to trace "shortages," or duplicate anything "missing." If R. R. Company overcharged you, we shall refund the overcharge upon receipt of your freight-bill. Do not fail to send this. Until received we can not send you a refund.

115. Addressing Letters. Prefix "Mr.," "Mrs.," or "Miss" (as the case may be) to your signature. Adopt one style of signature. A married woman should write "Mrs." and husband's first name and his middle initial. The middle initial should never be omitted. Serious delays and mistakes are liable to occur when "Mrs. Andrew A. Carnegie" signs as Mrs. Louise B. Carnegie, one time, "Mrs. A. Carnegie" next time, "Mrs. L. B. Carnegie" another time, etc. Occasionally there are several persons with the same name and similar initials in the same locality.

116. Agents. Larkin Co. want no professional agents or canvassers. Offers of Rewards for Sales Service are open only to old and to new customers, members of their families, and organizers of Clubs-of-Ten.

117. Branches. Branches are maintained in Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Cleveland, and Pittsburgh, to serve our customers within their wagon-route limits. Orders are packed, and delivered from these Branches, on the same terms as though shipped from Buffalo. If you are in one of the districts served by a Branch, we bring our service that much nearer to you.

Our Chicago Branch serves customers in Chicago and in Northern and Eastern Illinois, Minnesota, Montana, No. and So. Dakota and Wisconsin. In this zone, our customers pay freight-charges from Chicago only.

Our Peoria Branch serves customers in the remaining States West of Mississippi River, and in Southern and Western Illinois. These customers pay freight-charges from Peoria only.

Visitors to cities containing Branches (see front cover for their locations), are cordially invited to inspect our Exhibits of Products and Premium Merchandise, and to meet our people. In these Branches our latest literature and all desired information may be obtained, orders left, and bills paid. They are for your convenience. Their latchstrings always hang outside.

118. Cancelling Former Catalogs. Although this Catalog cancels all previous ones, nearly all goods offered in the last previous catalog can still be furnished, and many of those offered in earlier editions. Write for what you want. New editions are published on Mar. 1st and Sept. 1st yearly. Copies sent anywhere on request.

119. Church-Aid Plan. Managers of church fairs, bazaars, hospitals, etc. can quickly and easily raise funds. No longer need they solicit "contributions," nor fatigue themselves by importuning tradesmen for advertising, nor for "donations" to be sold or auctioned for charitable purposes. Nor need they ask patrons to buy goods at far above the real value.

On page 133 you will see how pleasantly you can dispense with all of these disagreeable features, and yet get more money. Try it once and you will be convinced. Your pastor will appreciate being released from having to make financial appeals from the pulpit. No need for them exists when the Larkin Church-Aid Plan supplements the ordinary income of the church.

Endowments become possibilities when the Larkin Church-Aid plan is used. The latter affords fine opportunities for the young people to obtain means for carrying on a great work, without making appeals for funds. They may take orders for Larkin Products, which will benefit those who order, and the profit will enrich the endowment fund. This phase of the Larkin Idea solves the problem of sustentation boards, and the superannuated ministers' relief fund. It also enables academies, boarding schools, colleges, and similar institutions to supply their commissary departments at a great saving over what they had been paying, while giving them best quality. By ordering Products (and Consumers' Wholesale Commodities, see paragraph 130) from us, they will increase their endowment funds.

The Larkin Idea is an agreeable, profitable, and sure method of paying church debts; furnishing parsonages; equipping chapel and other interiors; increasing the pastor's and other salaries; in fact it solves all church money-problems. Ask for our "Church Aid" literature.

120. Credit Extended. Strangers can not judge the value of the Larkin factory-to-family direct plan. Scattered all over our country and abroad are millions still who neither know us, nor are aware of the Larkin customers in their vicinity. If they knew us they would not hesitate to deal here and obtain the advantages we offer for cash. But they do not. We want to serve all such. To remove their objection to sending money in advance to "strangers," we are willing to trust them.

To all citizens of the U. S. to whom their home merchants would give like credit, we offer to send on credit up to $10 value. Send no money. All we ask is that a customer, a merchant or your pastor will certify that you are given like credit at home.

121. Crockery. We replace, without charge, all Buffalo Pottery's Ware that arrives broken. The customer will pay only the carrying-charge. When shipped with other goods by freight, this charge is trifling.

A sample Fruit Saucer of any set made by Buffalo Pottery will be mailed on receipt of 10 cents in stamps.

122. Dealing With Unauthorized Persons. No offers are made, and no inducements are given by us, unless contained in our printed matter. Avoid dealing with strangers who offer anything as from Larkin, not contained therein. We do not authorize traveling solicitors to collect money. All money should be sent by mail direct to our office. Strangers who in our name demand money in advance probably are impostors. For safety's sake ignore them. If you will report the cases to the police, you will do your community a service.

123. Engraving. We will engrave Jewelry, Watches with shield center, and Flat Silverware except knives, (we do not engrave knives).

Unless free engraving is included in our offer, prices will be as follows:

	Per Piece	Per Doz.
Script, 1 letter	$.05	$.50

Water-front for city-water-system use, fitted in front of fire-box, instead of front lining, $3 additional.

The Polished Blue-Steel Body is protected with heavy Asbestos Mill-Board. The top of the Oven is made double with Asbestos between, and put together with heavy rivets; the front of the oven in the rear of fire box is covered with a heavy casting that protects the steel; this makes the oven very durable and equalizes the heat for baking and roasting. The heavy steel plate used for the bottom of the oven is corrugated, which stiffens it and removes all buckle; it is further reinforced by two heavy wrought-iron strips riveted to the underside of this corrugated bottom, which makes it the strongest, most substantial and durable oven made in any Steel-Plate Range.

Some of the other good features consist of: Heavy, sectional fire-box linings thoroughly ventilated; broad, heavy duplex-grates operated with a malleable crank handle; extra-deeply seated arch-ribbed covers and centers, the most durable made; large sheet flues, giving free, easy draft; heavy nickel-plated oven-door with heat-indicator; enameled-wood handle; large nickel hinge box; nickel ash-pit door; ash catch and drop-end feed-door heavily lined; nickel-plated tube-rail with balls full-length of top; strong cast end with large pouch feed-door; flue bottom on the under-side entirely covered with heavy asbestos mill-board; enameled ventilated base and corners that cannot rust; broad heavy cast flue back.

The end shelf and reservoir-top have enameled towel-rail. The warming-closet is made of Blue Steel, nickel trimmings. Machine-fitted register and damper regulates the range perfectly and improves the baking and economizes in fuel. Nickel-plated teapot-rests. Hooks on side of high closet for poker and lid-lifter which are included.

Fireless Cooker No. 450.

Price $5 when ordered with Products, see page 3. Sold alone for $5.50.

An absolutely sanitary and hygienic Cooker. Made of metal inside and out. Outside enameled Green with Maroon striping. Has no odor-holding pads or cushions; every exposed part is easily accessible for thorough cleaning.

The heat, generated in the food over a fire, where it has been brought to a boiling point, is so completely retained by the Cooker, that from its own heat, the food continues to cook until done. This process obviously saves a large per cent. in cost of fuel, insuring a cooler kitchen, and it also makes the food better, more healthful and palatable.

The perfectly insulated air-tight compartments and tight-fitting covers prevent escape of heat or odor of food. No experience needed to operate; burning, scorching, and over-cooking of food is impossible. Food needs no attention while being cooked.

Has one each 2½-qt. and 5-qt. cooking-pots and one shallow pan; all are the best gray enameled ware and have aluminum covers held tight to dish with wire catches; two heating soapstone disks with bails; one galvanized metal stand for inside of cooker. Height, 16¼ in.; diameter, 12½ in.

Ideal Steam Cookers.

Save their cost several times in food, fuel and labor. Makes burning or scorching of food impossible. Food boiled or roasted loses one-third to one-fourth by evaporation. When cooked by dry steam in the IDEAL, nothing is lost; the dry heat preserves the rich flavor of the food, at the same time separates the fibers and makes it juicy and tender. No odors escape. Made of heavy charcoal tin. Inside-of-top has a ring for suspending a fowl or ham. A whistle blows before water becomes too low. Self-regulating valve that holds steam under pressure. Each has two pans. A hundred-page Cook Book with each Cooker.

MONEY EASILY RAISED

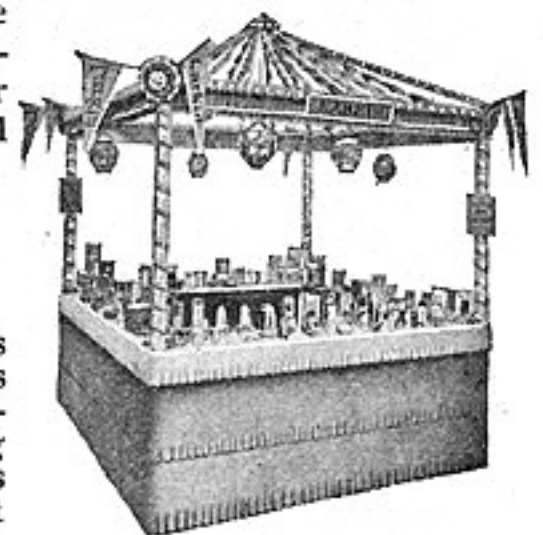

For Churches, Societies, Sunday Schools, Parsonages, Missionaries, Etc., Etc.
By The Larkin Church-Aid Plan

Here is an easy and practical way to provide a permanent income for your Church, or a Church Society. It does away entirely with donations, contributions, and other bothersome methods of raising money. For $10 we will sell to you, or to a committee, $20 worth of Larkin Products, selected by you from pages 12 to 30 of this Catalog. The members of your church or organization simply agree to buy these Products at the list prices, which are the same prices they would pay for them at the store. For every twenty dollars' worth of Products thus sold there will be ten dollars' profit for the church-fund or society treasury. There is no extra expense to anyone, and the plan can be kept in continuous operation, yielding the church $100, $500, or even $1000 in a year's time. Hundreds of Churches and Societies are successfully operating our Church-Aid Plan — paying off debts, supporting missionaries, supplying funds for societies, and furnishing Sunday Schools and parsonages. Almost every day we receive expressions of thanks from those benefited. Make up your order from this Catalog and send it to us NOW, or write to us for our Church-Aid Booklet which will give you full information about our Church-Aid Plan.

The Larkin Booth for Fairs and Bazaars.

To help you raise money at Church Fairs and Bazaars without donations or contributions we will supply you free with the complete decorations for the booth shown in the accompanying picture; also with $6.50 worth of our Products and Printed Matter. Our Church-Aid Booklet explains this offer in detail. Write for it today—just ask for Church-Aid Booklet No. 194. Address all communications to

124. Factories. If you visit our factories at Buffalo you will find our thousands of assistants happy in their work, because of our exceptional arrangements made for their comfort and welfare. They are absorbed in preparing goods for customers. Our factories are always open for inspection. We cordially invite you to visit them. This year 50,000 people are expected, based on the records to date. Many have thought their trip through our factories the best feature of their stay in Buffalo. "The Home of the Larkin Idea" is a beautifully illustrated account of a Trip through our Factories, which tells a great deal about them and the Products made therein. It also tells some interesting facts about the rise and development of the business. A copy of this very attractive booklet will be sent free, on request, to all who are interested.

125. Freight- and Delivery-Charges. Freight- and delivery-charges on all goods are always payable by the customer. Our prices are based wholly upon factory-cost of goods. Freight-charges to various points differ widely. If freight were included in our selling-prices, we should have to make different selling-prices for different localities; or if the same selling-prices were fixed for all points, we should have to make them large enough to cover freight-charges to very distant points. But, freight being payable by the customers, gives, to all, the benefit of actual freight-rates to their respective stations and all alike pay only our wholesale factory prices for the goods. In paragraph 117 we tell whence orders from Ill., Wis., and West of Mississippi River are shipped. In no better ways could we treat all customers fairly and impartially. See also paragraph 101.

126. Illustrations. All are exact reproductions from photographs, or drawings. Each applies to the article described. As the article appears in the picture, so you will find the original, in sizes advertised. Not being drawn from imagination, our pictures are absolutely reliable.

127. Imported Goods. When equally good, or better, quality is obtainable in our country, we prefer to supply things "made in America." We supply many articles, in part, or wholly imported, and hardly deem it worth mentioning. If we offer Norwegian Sardines, you may rely upon their having come from Bergen or Christiania—not from Maine. It is not advantageous to depend too much upon foreign markets, for there are always risks of delays or shortages. Then, too, we can not inspect foreign purchases as strictly as those nearer home.

128. Keys. A Duplicate Key for the lock of any piece of furniture will be mailed, postpaid, on receipt of 5 cts. (A locksmith would charge 25 cts.) On ordering always give the catalog name and number of the article for which the key is desired.

129. "Knocked Down" explained. Shipped Knocked Down means that the article is taken apart in sections so it may be packed in smallest possible space, thus reducing freight-charges; all such articles are prepared to be easily, readily, and strongly put together.

130. Larkin Wholesale Commodities. "Larkin Commodities" is the name we have adopted for the goods which are prepared for us by other manufacturers and sold in our Consumers' Wholesale Department. Under this heading are included such important and necessary foodstuffs as cereals, coffee, crackers, (and other baked goods) mince-meat, relishes, sea-foods (canned), soups, vegetables (canned and dried), etc.—articles that you have bought every day at the store and paid full prices for.

As they are staple merchandise, they do not double in price in passing from the manufacturer to the consumer by way of the middlemen—therefore we can not save you a full one-half on them, as we do on our Products. We DO save you from 15 cents to 40 cents on the dollar by buying them in large quantities and selling them to you at wholesale. Or, viewing it in another way, you always get—in "Commodities" an average of One-Third More for Your Money From Us, than you could get at the store.

The Consumers' Wholesale Department is an outgrowth of the incessant appeals our customers have made to us to assist them in saving money on other commodities than Larkin Products. By thus applying their combined buying-power for their benefit, we are saving them thousands of dollars. Our prices are the same as, or less than the grocer pays. Sometimes they are lower than wholesalers pay. This we know because they have offered us their orders at our prices to you. Send today for the Consumers' Wholesale Department Price-List, published 1st of Jan., Mar., May, July, Sept. and Nov. and for order blanks and take advantage of the savings you will make. Ask to have it mailed you regularly. You can add Larkin Commodities to any order for Larkin Products and Premium Merchandise.

131. Licenses. It is illegal for you to be taxed, or forced to take out a license because you send us orders for your own use, or on account of your connection with a Larkin Club, as long as you take orders for future delivery to neighbors. Without expense to you, we hereby guarantee to protect you from financial loss by reason of any demand—if it be made—upon you, for the payment of a tax or license, on the ground of your dealing with us. It is unlikely that you will be asked. But occasionally, some retailers who lose sales—because people have found that Larkin saves them one-half—may try to dissuade our friends from taking orders. Ignore them.

If anyone attempts to collect any license-fee or tax or interferes with you in conducting your Club, write us immediately, giving name, address and full particulars.

132. Measurements. Only the outside measurements of furniture are given. These figures tell the space any article requires.

133. Open Goods Carefully. We bespeak great caution in unpacking. The thoughtless use of a hammer, or the use of wrong tools, has defaced or broken very valuable articles which had made long journeys safely. We confide our goods to customers' care, assured that they will prevent mistreatment.

134. Orders divided into Several Shipments. Orders for $20 value (or more) may be divided if preferred, into several shipments and payments, but not less than $10 worth of Products may be ordered sent at one time. Merchandise-Bonus will be sent in exchange for Due Bills when presented. See paragraph 96.

135. Order Blanks. Additional printed Order Blanks for your convenience will be sent on request. You will oblige us by using these Blanks, one of which faces the inside of front cover. This will avert delay in filling orders. After you have aided us by the pleasant services required to merit Rewards, see paragraph 51, these Order Blanks will better insure your getting them.

Orders written on plain paper are however just as acceptable. It is always wise to keep an exact copy of your order with which to tally the goods you receive.

136. Orders for less than $10 are less profitable to customers. We can not give a Merchandise-Bonus, or a present for cash, on orders that do not include $10 worth of Products at list-prices. Nor can we give a Reward for Sales Service on an order amounting to less than $10 cash, nor on one which does not include at least $10 worth of Products at list-prices.

137. Orders sent heretofore. If you need to refer to orders previously sent, to insure prompt reply, please give:

(1.) Full name and address of the person to whom the goods were to be sent, (exactly as these appeared in the original order).

(2.) Date when you mailed the order to us.

(3.) Name of the principal article of Merchandise, if you ordered any. If you can not tell exactly, give the fullest information you can. You can get this from the copy you made when you sent the original order.

138. Orders From Abroad. Larkin Products go to all parts of the Globe. We have customers in Africa, Asia, China, Cuba, Europe, Jamaica, The Philippines, Porto Rico and most other foreign countries.

To Canadian points, experience has shown that the import duty on our Products and Premium Merchandise amounts, on an average, to 35 per cent. of the amount of the order. We will, if requested, send the goods in bond, but our Canadian customers usually find it more convenient to send with the order an additional 35 per cent., in which case we fully prepay the duty.

Goods are shipped to Alaska, Canada and Hawaii, from our factory at Buffalo. Goods for other foreign countries are shipped in bond from our New York City Branch; address, 237 West 23rd St. On all foreign orders to be shipped from New York add $12\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. of net price to cover freight-charges from Buffalo to New York, and the cost of extra packing.

Many customers in the United States and Canada send Products and Premium Merchandise to relatives and friends in far-away countries. We send bills so clearly made out that shipments will be speedily passed through the Customs. Our prices with duties added, will be found low. Importers must pay exactly the same rates of duty as our customers. They include these in their prices to the retailer. Middlemen have no advantages which our customers do not have. Foreign retailers' prices are much higher than our prices are with duty added.

139. Orders Not Acknowledged. To acknowledge, even by a post-card, a million orders, would cost $10,000 simply for the cards. Having over two million of customers, we do not acknowledge receipt of orders. Thus one waste is averted. The mails are so safe that you can rely upon your letter reaching us.

140. Repairs. We can not recognize a bill for repairs which were made without our authority. Report to us any breakage or injury to goods in transit and rely upon our prompt attention and fair treatment. Do not incur any cost unless you first receive our consent.

141. Returning Goods. Never return any goods until you have written for and received our instructions. We might want to send them to a point near you. Nothing will suffer by waiting a few days.

142. Rules. Being the pioneers, our business is unlike all others. Customers enjoy the advantages of the cumulative experience of our unrivaled organization, which for over a third of a century has devoted its entire efforts to serving them. They will readily understand that definite rules must govern any sound business. Necessity and experience compelled us to adopt a few. They are founded upon good sense and were devised for the benefit of our customers as a whole. Of course they are fair and impartial. By observing our rules, your business with us will be pleasant, permanent, and profitable to you.

143. School Clubs. We issue a Special List for Schools which shows how attractively and inexpensively class-rooms, etc. may be equipped. Ask us to mail it. You will be interested in the globes, wall-maps, etc., the stock of popular books (such as "Treasure Island") pictures of notable objects (such as the frieze of the Parthenon at Athens) mythological subjects, etc. No excuse exists for unadorned assembly rooms, when you can readily beautify them by our Plan. Where hung, these pictures have a fine formative influence on pupils.

All mothers know how often children ask for money to buy articles for use in schools. Teachers can easily show parents the advantage of uniting to buy school necessities for the children. The teacher collects the orders brought from home by pupils and forwards them to us with the cash, to procure the desired requisites.

144. Testimonials. Volumes would be needed to contain a small part of the thousands of appreciative letters received from customers. Those who deal here do not need to read testimonials. They know that every promise we make is carried out. To strangers—those who have not ordered—we will gladly mail a large sheet of testimonials from Larkin customers all in your own state, very likely one or two of them in your own town.

145. Monthly Magazine and Paper. "The Larkin Idea." Every month we publish an illustrated, breezy, modest-size magazine with this name. All Club Secretaries are entitled to a free subscription. To others it is offered in the Product list at 50 cents a year, and therefore costs one-half that amount, or 25 cents. See paragraphs 13 and 18. Send for a copy. It is intended to further the welfare of users of Larkin Products and Premium Merchandise, and will blaze new paths leading to better living.

"The Larkin News" is a little paper published free once a month containing announcements of all new Larkin Products and Premium Merchandise ready for our customers between the times of the regular semi-annual editions of our catalog. As many copies as are desired will be sent as often as asked for by any customer-friend.

146. Time Limit. If there be any dissatisfaction over articles, especially those subject to the caprices of Fashion, notify us without fail within a reasonable time, say not later than thirty days after receipt of the article, or as soon as defect is known, if later. Our three-days' limit on garments appears on page 31.

147. Traveling Showrooms. Two are en route continuously. In either you can inspect 1,000 examples of our Premium Merchandise (all we can well carry,) and the entire line of Larkin Products with which they are given. When possible, moving pictures of our vast plant, are shown at a near-by theatre. Thus you may take a trip through our factories. The pictures are explained as they appear. One Traveling Showroom is at present in the Middle West; the other is visiting the Eastern States. "The Larkin Idea" and your local papers will announce the coming of the Traveling Showroom. If it reaches your locality, we trust you will visit it, and promise you a good entertainment. No goods are sold. The Showrooms are only for exhibition purposes.

148. Veneers. Veneers are of thin pieces of choice expensive wood laid upon other wood. This permits a very superior finish to the furniture so treated.

We use veneer-construction to increase the beauty of the finished product. It is desirable, because veneering imparts strength and stability to the pieces. These qualities result from reversing the direction of the grain of the several layers of wood used. There are always three or more layers. The grain of the outside veneer runs one way. The grain of the inside layers alternately runs crosswise (or lengthwise) in the opposite direction. Thus expansion and contraction are equalized. Shrinking, buckling, and warping are prevented.

Veneered construction greatly increases the strength of a given thickness of board. We use veneered construction on all Larkin furniture which must be especially strong, from sewing-machine-cabinets to piano-cases. As far as the low price admits we also use veneers in our lowest-price furniture.

Order Ready-to-Wear Garments Here

Larkin Ready-to-Wear Garments include Coats, Capes, Waists and Dresses—every woman's garment we offer in fact, except Walking Skirts, which are made to order. We can fit your figure perfectly if you will follow our directions carefully and give us your exact measurements. Do not guess at these, do not give the size you last wore, but measure yourself as indicated on the two charts shown here and write the measurements on the dotted lines which follow each of the directions. Make no allowance for fullness when taking measurements.

Bust-Measure:—(A) Pass the tape around the body, keeping it close up under the arms. Measure over the largest part of bust; pull the tape snug.

Waist-Measure:—(B) Pass the tape snugly around the waist at the natural waist-line.

Now fill out the form below. Also be sure to give a Second choice which would be satisfactory to you, if for any reason we cannot supply you with the garment first chosen.

Order Made-to-Order Walking Skirts Here

All Larkin Walking Skirts are made to order,—that is, they are cut and fitted to your measurements just as the custom tailor would cut and fit them. It is highly important in ordering them that the following Directions be observed. Do not guess at the measurements but give them to us exactly.

1. Take measurements directly from your figure and send them exactly as shown by the tape; make no allowances of any kind.
2. Use a correct tape measure (not one that is stretched).
3. Remove the belt and locate the natural waist-line by tying a cord about your waist. Do not remove cord until you have made all measurements.
4. Be sure that tape measure is smooth and even all around while measurement is being taken.
5. Do not let it slip up or down.
6. After measurements are completed verify the figures by careful examination—re-measure where in doubt. We cannot change measurements after garments have been cut.

MEASUREMENTS FOR MADE-TO-ORDER SKIRTS.

State whether regular waist-band with narrow tailored belt of self-material, or Princess top, is desired.

Waist-Measure:—(B) Pass the tape snugly around the waist at the natural waist-line as indicated by the cord. Make no allowance for dip front.

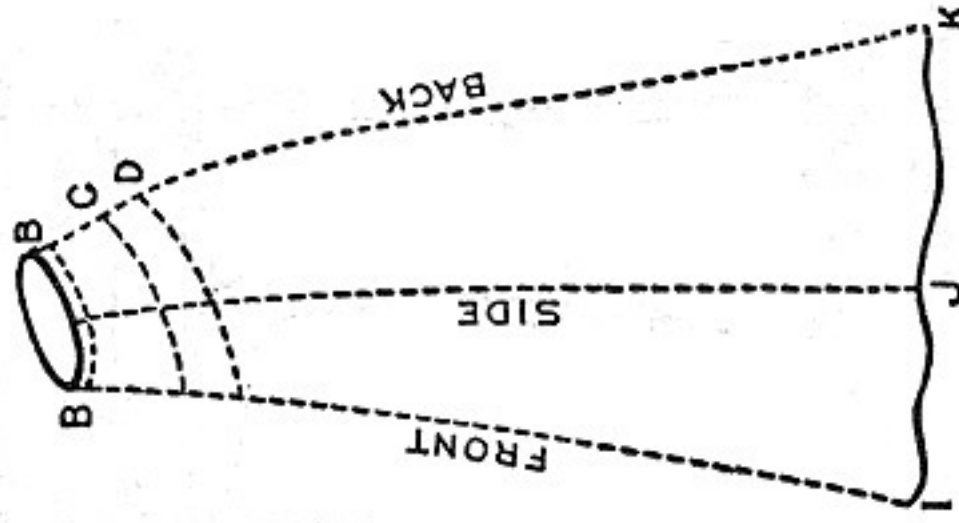

Hip-Measures:—Pass the tape around the hips six inches (C) and nine inches (D) below the waist-line (B); not too tight.

Front-Length:—(I) From center-front of waist-line (B) at bottom of waist-band to length desired (I).

Side-Length Right:—From center right-side of waist-line (B) at bottom of waist-band to length desired; same location as (J) but on the right side.

Back-Length:—From center-back of waist-line (B) at bottom of waist-band to desired length (K).

OUR GUARANTEE A tag attached to every garment reads: "If this garment does not give you complete satisfaction, write us within three days, giving reasons for dissatisfaction, and we will take it back, refunding all you have paid us, and reimbursing you for transportation-charges."

Larkin Co. I send you this order with the understanding that you will refund my money or ship another garment, as I may prefer, if the one sent on this order is not in accordance with the measurements I give hereon, or is not entirely satisfactory, and providing that I return such garment in good condition; return to be at your expense. I will write you within three days about any garment that is to be returned or exchanged and will neither wear nor alter it.
